What is Community Land Trust homeownership?

When the homebuyer puts the land beneath their home into the land trust, they receive the exclusive right to use and occupy that land under a renewable 99-year Ground Lease.

In the Ground Lease, the homeowner agrees that they will use the home as their primary residence. If they sell the home, they agree to sell it to an income-qualified buyer at an agreed-upon, affordable price.

Being a "Community Land Trust homeowner" means joining a community of people who are committed to protecting the affordability of their homes for future generations.
